

Oregon Society of Artists presents 2017

200 FOR UNDER $200

Oregon Society of Artists (OSA) invites students, emerging and established artists to participate in our increasing popular annual 12"x12" challenge. Registered participants will create an art piece on a supplied cradled panel. Artwork will be displayed in the OSA gallery for a gala reception, exhibition and sales extravaganza in November. Participants will be eligible to win cash, valuable prizes and awards. Join us for this fun new annual show!

Guidelines and Entry

- Open to members and non-members of OSA
- Submit application and $35 nonrefundable fee for first entry, which includes a 12"x12"x 3/4" cradled birch panel from American Easel. Additional entry with panel $15 each. Up to three entries per artist. Panels must be picked up at OSA, no deliveries.
- Artists may work in any media, including but not limited to oil paint, watercolor, acrylic, photography, collage, or a combination of mediums.
- OSA provided panels must be used. Panel may be altered in any way the artist chooses, but finished piece must fit within the outer edges of the 12x12 panel, and must be ready and able to hang on a wall .
- Edges of panel must be sealed or finished. No frame is needed. All panels must be ready to hang with wire and D-rings 4" from top. No saw tooth hangers or other funky hanging devices. If you're not sure what that means, check the website or ask!
- All work must be for sale, and priced by the artist at under $200. Please consider making a donation to OSA on any sales you make.
- All artwork must be original to the artist. No work created from imagery of another artist, photographer or any copyrighted work is eligible.

Awards and Prize

Contest winners will be determined by jurist Rene Eisenbart
The jurist will consider artistic composition, general appeal and visual excitement.

- First Place- $500- cash and prizes
- Second Place- $250- cash and prizes
- Third Place- $100-cash and prizes
- Six Honorable Mentions
- Door prizes and drawings
